church finance, and other important financial things that will benefit you and your team. In our most recent episode, Chris Mallonee leads us through an in-depth discussion on 1099s. We talk about everything from why churches need to file 1099s to what to do if you failed by this year's January 31st deadline.

We want to provide resources for churches and church planters. Check out our ever-increasing forms page at churchbiz.com/forms to find helpful resources for your team. There you can find everything from budget templates, housing allowance forms, and many other useful tax and financial-related items for your team.

Expense management can be a headache. Do not let this become a bigger problem than it should be. The ChurchBiz team has 3 great recommendations for expense management. Visit the blog page on our website to find out more information on this topic and many other great resources. churchbiz.com/blog
